

Young Media Voices

Apply now to learn new skills and take-over Scotland's media as part of a group of young people from across Scotland!

Fancy the chance to work on radio, TV, newspaper and social media projects, bringing stories that matter to young people to life? We're looking for children and young people (aged 8-17) from all over Scotland who enjoy making things and want the chance to share what matters most to them with a big audience.

- Interview people
- Make your own podcast
- Write news articles
- Take professional photographs for print
- Talk to a camera
- Edit films
- Make posts for major social media channels
- Make and share mobile content in your community

How do I apply?

To apply, you just need to send your name and date of birth to us, along with answers to the following questions and a completed copy of our consent form.

Find everything you need to apply at childreninscotland.org.uk.

Questions:

1. Where do you live?
2. Why you would like to take part?
3. What about the project sounds most exciting to you?

If you would like to share something that you have made to support your application, please send it to us! This could include photos, films, drawings, or anything else that you think might show off your creative skills! You can call us on 0131 313 2322 if you have a question or want to find out more.
