

Children's Rights and the UNCRC: Bridging Policy and Practice

Courses descriptors and learning outcomes

Children in Scotland's policy team offers a range of children's rights and UNCRC training options that can be customised for your organisation's training needs.

We've outlined the main options below, but these can be tailored to include more comprehensive discussions on: children's rights and participation or Children's Rights and Wellbeing Impact Assessment.

Contact Chris Ross at cross@childreninscotland.org.uk to discuss your training needs.

Option 1: UNCRC introduction webinar

Length: 1.5 hours

Delivery: Zoom

Pre-learning: Children in Scotland: eLearning Hub \(lms.childreninscotland.org.uk\)

Maximum attendees: Unlimited

Key learning:

- Recognising the background to UNCRC
- Understanding the key principles and articles
- Exploring the Scottish context
- Includes a space for reflective questions

Materials:

- Recording of session
- Signposting useful resources
- Evaluation of the session

Option 2: UNCRC introduction webinar and reflection workshop

Length: Half-day

Delivery: Zoom

Pre-learning: Children in Scotland: eLearning Hub \(lms.childreninscotland.org.uk\)

Maximum attendees: 20

Key learning:

- Re-cap learning from the UNCRC e-module

- Exploring the current Scottish policy context
- Group reflection on their practice, sharing successes and challenges (including accessibility and inclusion)
- An opportunity for the group to plan their development and next steps

Materials:

- Recording of session
- Collated notes from session
- Signposting useful resources
- Evaluation of the session

Option 3: UNCRC introduction webinar, reflection workshop, and review session

Length: Half-day, plus 1.5hr follow up session 1 month later

Delivery: Zoom

Pre-learning: Children in Scotland: eLearning Hub \(lms.childreninscotland.org.uk\)

Maximum attendees: 20

Key learning:

Half-day session

- Re-cap learning from the e-module around UNCRC
- Exploring the current Scottish policy context
- An opportunity for the group to reflect on their practice, sharing successes and challenges. Also covering accessibility and inclusion.
- An opportunity for the group to plan their development and next steps

1.5 hour follow-up session

- Reflections on actions identified in previous half day session
- Progress made
- Potential barriers
- Agree next steps – who, what, why when

Materials for both sessions:

- Recording of session
- Collated notes from session
- Signposting useful resources
- Evaluation of the sessions